MILWAUKIE -- Bob Moore, founder of Bob's Red Mill Natural Foods, celebrated his 82nd birthday Tuesday afternoon at his Milwaukie grain store at 5000 S.E. International Way.

Party-goers included friends, fans, colleagues and community residents, many of whom shared a moment with Moore as they snapped photos with him and collected their complimentary Scottish Oatmeal.

Moore, who ushered in his 81st birthday by handing over full ownership of the $80 million company to his employees, commemorated this year by donating $5 million to Oregon State University and $1.35 million to Oregon's National College of Natural Medicine to fund healthy eating initiatives, according to his spokeswoman.
